

Student Anti-Bullying Policy

1. Introduction

- 1.1. The aim of the anti-bullying policy is to ensure that students learn in a supportive, caring and safe environment without fear of being bullied. Bullying is anti-social behaviour and affects everyone; it is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Only when all issues of bullying are addressed will students be able to fully benefit from the opportunities available at College.
- 1.2. The College seeks to support students who are being bullied regardless of whether the bullying takes place on or off campus.

2. Definition of bullying

- 2.1. Bullying is defined as deliberately hurtful behaviour, repeated over a period of time, where it is difficult for those being bullied to defend themselves. The four main types of bullying are:
 - physical (hitting, kicking, theft)
 - verbal (name calling, racist remarks)
 - indirect (spreading rumours, excluding someone from social groups)
 - cyber bullying (using texts, phone calls, email or social networks for example).
- 2.2. For episodes causing significant harm, please refer to the Safeguarding Students and Adults at Risk Policy as Bullying and Harassment over a sustained period of time is a Safeguarding concern.

2.3 Bullying may be due to a student's gender, disability, age, religious beliefs, ethnicity or sexuality.

3. The impact of bullying

3.1. Students who are being bullied may show changes in behaviour, such as becoming shy and nervous, feigning illness, taking unusual absences or clinging to adults. There may be evidence of changes in work patterns, lacking concentration or absences from College. Students must be encouraged to report bullying in College.

4. Support

4.1. Students who allege they have been bullied will be supported by being:

- offered an immediate opportunity to discuss the experience with a lecturer or student tutor or member of staff of their choice
- given reassurance
- offered continuous support
- assistance with the restoring of self-esteem and confidence
- restorative justice approach offered if appropriate

4.2. The student's parents may also be involved in being made aware of the problems being encountered and how they can they support their son/daughter.

4.3. Students who have been accused of bullying or have been found to have bullied another student will be helped by:

- discussing what happened, discovering why the student became involved, establishing the wrong doing and need to change

- informing parents or guardians of the alleged bully to help change the attitude of the student
- restorative justice approach implemented if appropriate

5. How to handle an allegation of bullying

5.1. The following steps may be taken when dealing with incidents:

- If bullying is suspected or reported, the incident must be dealt with immediately by the member of staff who has been approached
- A clear account of the incident will be recorded and given to the Head of Learning
- The Head of Learning will interview all concerned and will record the discussions
- Parents will be kept informed if the student is under 18.

5.2. Where bullying has occurred, the Student Referral Procedure will be invoked.

6. Monitoring of this policy

6.1. The Assistant Principal of Student Success is responsible for monitoring the implementation and success of this policy using student complaint and Student Referral data. A report will be made to the Senior Management Team on an annual basis.
